

The Coalition to Dismantle the New Jim Crow presents a
FREE Conference

Power & Change: Dismantling Racial Bias through Community Action

Attend free, action-oriented workshops on promoting racial equity in:

- Education
- Criminal justice
- Restorative Justice
- Economic justice
- Fair and Safe Policing
- Re-entry and Recidivism

Saturday, April 28, 2018

8AM- 3PM

Salesianum School

1801 N. Broom Street, Wilmington, DE 19802

Cost is FREE (Continental breakfast and lunch provided)

Registration starts March 12, 2018 at www.endnewjimcrowde.org

Keynote: Dr. Barbara Love

Dr. Love will lead a discussion on “Developing a Liberatory Consciousness.” Dr. Love is Professor Emeritus of Social Justice Education at the University of Massachusetts-Amherst and heads the Black Liberation & Community Development Project of the International Re-Evaluation Counseling Communities. Dr. Love consults with faculties and administration at colleges and universities throughout the US, Europe, the Caribbean and Africa and with a variety of other organizations on issues of diversity and inclusion. Her research focuses on personal, organizational and societal transformation and strategies for liberation. Co-sponsored by

DELaWare
HUMANITIES

