Delaware Alliance against Sexual Violence	The mission of the Delaware Alliance Against Sexual Violence is to address sexual violence in Delaware by creating an inclusive community that supports survivors through advocacy, intervention and awareness. The Alliance is the federally designated sexual assault coalition for the state, and is tasked with building community among service providers, developing best practices for the state, identifying and addressing gaps in service to victims and survivors of sexual violence, and with providing technical assistance and training to law enforcement, court systems, medical providers and others who may interact with victims and survivors. It is our ultimate goal to prevent and eliminate all forms of sexual violence in Delaware.	Cinda Crane & Marie Oakberg	August 9, 2020
Peace Week DE	Peace Week Delaware has an annual budget of about $7,000, which in the past has gone largely for maintaining and improving our website, printing our annual program guide, and providing event organizers with postcards and other printed material. It is an all-volunteer organization that relies on contributions from individuals, foundations, churches, businesses, and other local institutions. Peace Week derives its non-profit status through the fiscal agency of Pacem in Terris. The following First Unitarian members are are current volunteers for Peace Week Delaware: Stephanie Cloud, Holly Feldheim, Pam Finkelman, Jeff Lott, Darlene Scott, Ed Scott, Kimberly Tull, and Sue Wilson. Some of us have been with Peace Week since its inception in 2016. Kim Tull is the current chair of the steering committee.	Jeff Lott & friends	September 13

Delaware Nature Society	This environmental and education state-wide non-profit, works to connect people with nature and preserve our natural lands, the water we depend on and the air we breathe. The mission of the DNS was particularly dear to the heart of the late Governor Russell Peterson, a long time First U member. With fighting climate change as one of the critical moral imperatives of this century and our church's commitment to environmental stewardship, the DNS will put any and all funds collected during the worship service to science-based programs and projects. For more information on the mission and activities of the DNS, please contact Joanne McGeoch jmcgeoch@delawarenaturesociety.org .	Pam Finkelman	April 11, 2021
Lutheran Community services	LCS has been serving low-income families in Wilmington and New Castle County, Delaware with emergency food, housing, and other services since 1959. Click here to volunteer or learn about other ways you can help. Originally founded to help senior citizens with their independent living needs, we have evolved into a multi-faceted social service agency with many different programs and locations for low-income people of all ages.	Pam Wat & Marina VanRenssen	May 9, 2021
UUDAN	Our agreement with the other Delaware congregations calls for a three-year rotation of our contributions to UUDAN. In calendar 2020, Mill Creek and UUSD are combining their offerings, then 2021 is First Unitarian's turn (solo), followed by UUCD and Newark in 2022. We aim to raise about $1,200 dollars each year to fund our activities, and we will not need another offering from First Unitarian until 2024.	Jeff Lott & Becky Laster	June 13, 2021
